

WidePoint Subsidiary iSYS Announces $10 Million in Contract Expansions and Renewals

Monday, September 21, 2009

Washington D.C., -- WidePoint Corporation (NYSE AMEX: WYY), a leading provider of advanced information technology, identity assurance and protection and mobile telecom expense management (TEM) services, said today that it has received TEM service renewal orders and expansions for federal contracts representing approximately $10 million in business.

The company said it has received renewal and expansion orders from Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC), the Department of Homeland Security (DHS) and the Transportation Security Administration (TSA).

Jin Kang, president of iSYS, said, “We are gratified that we are experiencing a 100% renewal rate and further expansions of our services with federal agencies. This substantiates the value that we are providing in helping these agencies trim down and control their mobile telecom expenses.”

WidePoint CFO Jim McCubbin said, “We are pleased with the ongoing pace of contract renewals and expansions. We are experiencing success not just in our mobile telecom expense management activities, but are also encouraged in the award of new contracts across WidePoint. The second half of the year continues to look promising.”
